

German-American Clubs in North Carolina (January 2010)

While the German Consulate General is trying its best to keep German club information current, we rely on the German-American community to provide up-to-date information about their area. Please let us know if there are any new developments or changes and we will be happy to incorporate the information.

Alemannia Society Charlotte

The Alemannia Society is a German Club, and as a non-profit organization supports the German language and culture in the Charlotte area.

Alemannia was established in 1975. It is a contact for all German and other people who are interested in the German language and culture, and who will move into this area or live here already. It is a place for making new friends or having discussions about personal or general issues.

The club meets the first Thursday of every month at 7 p.m. at Waldhorn Restaurant (12101 Lancaster Highway, Pineville, NC 28134).

The variety of club activities includes the monthly Stammtisch and the annual Christmas Party. Additionally they often have barbecue at a state park, meet at Lake Wylie for a party at the marina or go on a wine tour visiting the local wineries. Sometimes they just come together on short notice for hiking, motorcycling or playing cards.

(Triad German Club continued)

In the Spring, a traditional Fasching celebration, the German equivalent to the French Mardi Gras, is held and the Triad German Club also sponsors Kulturabende, usually held at Reynolda House. These events feature renditions of selected pieces of classical German chamber music, poetry readings from famed German poets, selected short stories of noted German authors, and on numerous occasions talented singers have performed Lieder (songs) by German composers.
