

The Consul General – Curriculum Vitae

Onno Hückmann

Consul General Onno Hückmann was born in Bremen, Germany, in 1950. He is married and has three children.

1969	Abitur (Baccalaureat)
1969-1976	Studied law in Saarbrücken and Münster
1976	First State Examination in Law
1976-1978	Legal Training
1978	Second State Examination in Law
1978-1979	Legal Advisor at the Ministry of Education, Bremen
1979	Entered Federal Foreign Office, Bonn
1979-1981	Training at the Federal Foreign Office, Bonn
1981-1983	Vice-Consul, German Consulate General, Nancy
1983-1985	First Secretary for Cultural Affairs, German Embassy, Bucharest
1985-1987	Deputy Chief of Mission, German Embassy, Maputo
1987-1990	Counselor, Africa Division, Federal Foreign Office, Bonn
1990-1993	Head of Consular Division, German Embassy, Buenos Aires
1993-1996	Head of Visa Law Division, Federal Foreign Office, Bonn
1996-1999	Deputy Director of Immigration Law Division, Federal Foreign Office, Bonn
1999-2002	Deputy Chief of Mission, German Embassy, Dublin
2002-2008	Director for Legal Issues arising from World Wars I and II, Federal Foreign Office, Berlin
2008-2009	Harvard Fellow, Weatherhead Center for International Affairs, Harvard University, Cambridge
Since 08/2009	Consul General of the Federal Republic of Germany, Chicago