

German-American Clubs in Georgia (January 2012)

While the German Consulate General is trying its best to keep German club information current, we rely on the German-American community to provide up-to-date information about their area. Please let us know if there are any new developments or changes and we will be happy to incorporate the information.

German-American Business Stammtisch

The German-American Business Stammtisch meets the first Thursday of the month at 6:30 p.m. at the 5 Seasons Brewing Company (5600 Roswell Road, Suite 21 in The Prado, Atlanta).

Contact person: Gaby Beyer and Uwe Rotsch
Phone: (404) 422-7892
E-Mail: atlantastammtisch@yahoo.com

Atlanta Sangerkreis

The Atlanta Sangerkreis is a non-profit performance and social group dedicated to preserving the spirit of the German culture and its history through folk song and dance. For 25 years, they have performed here in Georgia and the Southeastern United States at many cultural festivals, senior centers, churches, and commercial establishments.

Presently, the Sangerkreis consist of approximately 35 members. Some are singers, some are dancers, and some enjoy both. Among the members are native born Germans, native Americans of German heritage, and others who are simply interested in German culture or language. All are welcome to visit rehearsals and performances.

Address: 1232 Carol Lane NE, Atlanta, GA 30306
Contact person: Diane Recotta
Phone: (404) 405-8448
E-Mail: singdance@atlantasaengerkreis.com
Internet: www.atlantasaengerkreis.com

German-American Clubs
in
Georgia
(January 2012)

Klub Heimatland

Klub Heimatland participates in a multitude of international events and charities and its members have been honored by the Mayor of Columbus for their tireless enthusiasm and effort in promoting German culture in the region.

Address: c/o St. Matthew's Luthern Church, 4026 Macon Rd.,
Columbus, GA 31907
Contact person: Ingeborg Wills (President)
Phone: (706) 327-3049
E-Mail: KlubHeimatland@aol.com

Georgia Salzburger Society

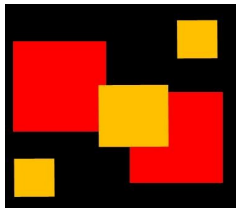

The Georgia Salzburger Society was established in 1925. It has a membership of over seventeen hundred throughout the United States including some international members.

The Society's activities are organized around preserving the history and traditions of the early settlers of Old Ebenezer and New Ebenezer as well as genealogical research of the descendants of those original settlers. The society's current projects include the translation of Boltzius' letters and diaries in cooperation with the Franckesche Foundation of Halle, Germany.

Address: 2980 Ebenezer Road, Georgia Highway 275, Rincon, GA 31326
Phone: (912) 754-7001
E-Mail: Info@GeorgiaSalzburgers.com
Internet: www.georgiasalzburgers.com

German-American Clubs
in
Georgia
(January 2012)

Treffpunkt Atlanta

„Treffpunkt Atlanta“ was founded in 2009 to give German-speaking women in the Atlanta area an opportunity to meet and to exchange ideas and tips. The informal group meets once a month for breakfast at IKEA and also organizes occasional excursions to the museum and other interesting events. Everyone who can follow a conversation in German is invited to participate!

Contact person: Martina Dorn
E-Mail: treffpunktatlanta@yahoo.com
Internet: www.treffpunktatlanta.com

Kaffeerunde

The German-speaking “Kaffeerunde” in Fayette/Coweta County meets every second week either on Thursday or Friday at one of the homes of its members -- the members take turns hosting the group. The club also organizes occasional outings in the evening.

Contact person: Susanne Reamer
Phone: (586) 489-9384
E-Mail: reamer1701@yahoo.com

Atlanta Kaffeeklatsch

The Kaffeeklatsch meets the 2nd Sunday of the month at 3 p.m. at the 5 Seasons Brewing Company (5600 Roswell Road, Suite 21 in The Prado, Atlanta).

Internet: <http://kaffeeklatsch.dhs.org>

German-American Clubs
in
Georgia
(January 2012)

Deutscher Freundschaftsclub

Address: P.O. Box 211763, Martinez, GA 30907
Contact person: James Taylor
Phone: (706) 860-9551
E-Mail: jtaylor457@comcast.net

The German Wine Society
- Atlanta Chapter -

The German Wine Society is dedicated to improving knowledge of German wines and conducting events at which such wines are shared and appreciated. The Society is private, educational and not for profit.

Address: 7055 Hunters Branch Drive, Atlanta, GA 30328
Contact person: Don Reddicks (Chapter Chair)
Phone: (770) 393-4584
E-Mail: donaredd@aol.com or donald.reddicks@wholefoods.com
Internet: www.germanwinesociety.org

The German Heritage Society
Savannah, GA

The society's mission is to cherish the recollections of our heritage, and the birthplace of ourselves and our forefathers, to promote good fellowship among Germans and their descendants, to encourage patriotic loyalty to and support of our city, state, and country, and to perpetuate the culture, historical, linguistic and scientific influence of "Deutschland".

Contact person: Thomas A. Davis (President)
Internet: www.germanheritagesavannah.org

German-American Clubs
in
Georgia
(January 2012)

German-American Club

Contact person: William Young
Phone: 770-921-0994
E-Mail: wyoung643@aol.com

German Friendly Society of Savannah

The German Friendly Society was formed in 1837. This organization was modeled on a Charleston charity aimed at aiding and servicing Germans in that area. It was the first German organization in Savannah and the centerpiece of the early community.

Address: P.O.Box 13556, Savannah, GA 31416
Contact person: W. Joseph Wheat (President)