

National Visa for Research Stay

(Section 18d Residence Act)

General Information

Researchers are third-country nationals who

1. hold a doctoral degree or appropriate German or foreign university degree giving access to doctoral programs, and
1. have been selected by a research institution and admitted to the territory of a Member State, and
2. pursue a research activity for which such a degree is normally required.

This also includes doctoral students who are enrolled at a foreign university and want to travel to Germany for research. If you are enrolled at a German university to complete a full-time doctoral study in Germany, please refer to the checklist “Doctorate students”.
